Message from the Vicar

Dearly beloved in Christ,

"The disciples were called Christians at Antioch" (Acts 11:26). The word 'Christians' is found only three times in New Testament –in Acts 11:26, 26:28 & 1 Peter 4:16. In each case, it is the pagan world using the word Christian to identify the believer in Christ. This meant that the pagan world saw Christ reflected in the lives of believers. They saw His love, character, purpose, purity and lifestyle in the believers. If the pagan world today can see us in the same way, then they will listen to what we say about Christ. If we do not reflect that image, then we must not expect them to listen. The key to our effectiveness is our identity.

Everyone has an identity. Identity is what others think when they see you or hear your name spoken. Some identities are nice but meaningless. There must be a reflection of Christ in my likeness or no one will listen to what I say.

Early believers were identified as Christians because of their conversion. Christ had dramatically changed their lives, and they reflected that change in every situation. They did what Jesus would have done in a tough time. One of the tragedies of today is that some people want to trust Jesus without their lives being changed. The Bible teaches that old things are passed away and all things are made new when we come to Christ. One must turn loose of the old life through repentance and in faith through the power of the Holy Spirit put on new life that is totally different. The early believers acted like Christ and were identified as Christians. Therefore, their witness had power and was effective.

Early believers were identified as Christians because of their commitment. Commitment to God is not measured by what you do for God, but by what you allow God Himself to do through you. This is why Paul said that Christ in you is the hope of glory. Paul said that he lived, yet it was not he who lived, but Christ who lived in him. Paul worked, yet it was not he who worked, but Christ who worked through him. He even declared that for him to live was Christ. This same thing was happening in the lives of these early believers.

We have accepted some very subtle substitutions for real commitment, which have hindered the work of Christ from being done in our lives and kept us from being as effective as we could have been with our witness.

Rev. Jisho K Daniel has joined as the assistant Vicar and Missionary at Wardha. I wholeheartedly welcome him into the Jerusalem family and wish that his ministry is fruitful and multiplies.

Rev. Sam Abraham

S5, E2 - The Bible and Church History Quiz, Sep 2025 (1 Corinthians Chapter 10, 11)

- 1. If a church today struggles with people not respecting the communal nature of the Lord's Supper, what practical advice would Paul give?
 - a. Allow each person to take the Lord's Supper privately
 - b. Limit the Lord's Supper only to elders and leaders
 - c. Replace the Lord's Supper with a different ritual
 - d. Encourage waiting and sharing so all can partake together as one body
- 2. What main point is Paul making by showing that the Israelites all received God's blessings but were still judged?
 - a. Participating in the Lord's Supper guarantees spiritual safety
 - b. God's blessings can be lost if one does not remain obedient and faithful
 - c. The Israelites sinned because they did not follow dietary laws
 - d. Spiritual experiences are more important than obedience
- 3. How does Paul's warning to avoid idolatry relate to what he teaches about the Lord's Supper?
 - a. Both symbolize fellowship-either with God or with demons
 - b. Both involve eating food in silence
 - c. Both are outdated religious customs
 - d. Both are prohibited for Gentile Christians
- 4. What is the consequence of partaking in the Holy Communion unworthily?
- 5. In 1 Corinthians 10, how does Paul say believers should decide if using their freedom is right?
 - a. Whether it is legal in their culture
 - b. Whether it benefits themselves personally
 - c. Whether it builds others up and honours God.
 - d. Whether no one is watching them
- 6. What important truth about God's design is Paul teaching when he talks about headship?
 - a. That Christ is less important than God
 - b. That customs are more important than doctrine
 - c. That men and women are not spiritually equal
 - d. A divine order reflecting authority and relational roles
- 7. When Paul refers to the "spiritual rock" that the Israelites drank from, he identifies it with Christ. In this context, what is Paul showing?
 - a. Christ existed and provided for God's people even before His incarnation
 - b. The rock was a literal prophecy of Jesus' birth
 - c. God only cared about Israel in the Old Testament
 - d. Drinking water is a form of worship

- What behaviour during the Lord's supper does Paul rebuke? 8.
- In which year was the Nicene Creed first adopted, and how many years have 9. passed since then (as of 2025)?
- 10. Which three bishops in the Mar Thoma Church have names that correspond to the first three Ecumenical Councils?

Fond Remembrance

Mr. IYPE GEORGE

(20 June 1947 - 16 Sept 2022)

A light from our home has gone. A voice we loved is stilled. A vacuum has been created in our home. Which can never be filled!
